INSTRUCTIONS FOR HOUSING ALLOWANCE

The Internal Revenue Service has taken the position that the housing allowance is limited to the Fair Market Rental Value or the Mortgage Payments, whichever is LESS. Thus, if a minister's mortgage payment is $750 a month but the rental value of the same house is $500 a month only $500 could be claimed.

There have been rumors that the IRS would accept 1% of the value of a house as a fair market rental value for one month. This was flatly rejected during an IRS audit, which would seem to indicate that a minister is responsible to "prove" the amount taken does not exceed the fair market value. I recommend obtaining either an appraisal or newspaper ads, which demonstrate similar houses for rent at a given price.

Also rejected, during the audit, was the down payment of the home on the basis that the amount exceeded the fair market rental value. Down payments can only be included when the down payment AND the remaining amount taken as housing allowance does not exceed the fair market value for the taxable year.

The furniture expense is to be treated in the same manner for the housing allowance. A minister may include the lesser of the actual expenses for the year or the fair market rental value of the furniture, whichever is less.

Also included in the housing allowance are the utility bills, which includes the telephone bill excluding, of course, long distance personal calls.

Remember to have your organization's Compensation Board recommend the housing allowance to the full Church Board for action in advance of any payments and to take a deduction for any mortgage interest you paid (Rev. Ruling 83-3 has been reversed by the tax law passed in 1986).

BOARD OF DIRECTORS' MINUTES

Designation of Housing/Parsonage Allowance

A meeting of the _____ Board of Directors was held on the day and year last set forth below, pursuant to notice thereof. It was determined that a quorum was present and the following piece of corporate business was transacted.

Under the provisions of federal income tax law, a minister of the Gospel is not subject to federal income tax on the "Housing/Parsonage Allowance" paid to him as part of his compensation to the extent that it is used by him to rent, buy or maintain a home.

The minister, _____, presented to the Board a request for housing/parsonage allowance, which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" incorporated herein by this reference as if set forth in full. After full and complete discussion, upon motion duly made, seconded and unanimously carried the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED, That until further notice or change, based on the minister's estimate of his home expenses, it is agreed to officially designate $ _____ of the minister's total cash salary as housing/parsonage allowance. Any and all other cash remuneration to the minister shall be designated as salary or reimbursable expense as the case may be. This designation of housing/parsonage allowance is made pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 107 and the regulations thereunder.

Dated this ____ day of _____, 20__.
